REPLY COMMENTS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN

Pursuant to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission’s (“FERC”) November 7, 2025 Notice Granting Extension of Time, Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel (the “Attorney General”), on behalf of the people of the State of Michigan respectfully submits these Reply Comments in response to initial comments submitted by interested stakeholders that address the October 27, 2025 Notice Inviting Comments regarding the Advanced Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (“ANOPR”) proposed by the Secretary of Energy on October 23, 2025.

The Attorney General replies to present support for several points raised in comments by the National Association of State Utility Consumer Advocates (“NASUCA”). The Attorney General replies to express support for NASUCA’s comments as to jurisdictional concerns presented by the ANOPR’s arguments and potential impact.¹ The Attorney General further replies to express support for NASUCA’s comments as to why expedited action would be inappropriate here.²

The Attorney General also replies to express support for the request raised in comment by a group of several states’ attorneys general and ratepayer advocates for FERC to “meaningfully
